TROPICAL CYCLONE BULLETIN NR. 10

Tropical Depression MIRASOL

Issued at 8:00 PM, 17 September 2025

Valid for broadcast until the next bulletin at 11:00 PM today.

HAZARDS AFFECTING COASTAL WATERS

24-Hour Sea Condition Outlook

Up to moderate to rough seas over the following coastal waters:

- Up to 3.0 m: The eastern seaboard of mainland Cagayan; the seaboard of Isabela.
- Up to 2.5 m: The remaining seaboards of mainland Cagayan; the seaboards of Babuyan Islands, Batanes, Aurora, Ilocos Norte, and Ilocos Sur.
- Mariners of motorbancas and similarly-sized vessels are advised to take precautionary measures while venturing out to sea and, if possible, avoid navigation under these conditions.

TRACK AND INTENSITY OUTLOOK

- Tropical Depression MIRASOL is forecast to move generally northwestward within the next 12 hours while traversing Northern Luzon and will re-emerge over the Luzon Strait. On the forecast track, MIRASOL will continue moving generally northwestward until it exits the Philippine Area of Responsibility tomorrow (18 September) morning.
- MIRASOL will maintain its strength as it crosses the Northern Luzon landmass. Once it is over the Luzon Strait, it is forecast to intensify and may reach tropical storm category tomorrow early morning. MIRASOL will remain as a tropical storm throughout the forecast period. However, further intensification to severe tropical storm is not ruled out.

Considering these developments, the public and disaster risk reduction and management offices concerned are advised to take all necessary measures to protect life and property. Persons living in areas identified to be highly or very highly susceptible to these hazards are advised to follow evacuation and other instructions from local officials. For heavy rainfall warnings, thunderstorm/rainfall advisories, and other severe weather information specific to your area, please monitor products issued by your local PAGASA Regional Services Division.

The next tropical cyclone bulletin will be issued at 11:00 PM today.
